Dear Sir:

I am sending you under separate cover a copy of the Commemorative Coinage of the United States. Since then there have been issued Monroe Doctrine half dollars, Huguenot Walloon, Lexington-Concord, and Stone Mountain half dollars.

I have not the data concerning any of these but understand that only one variety of each was struck. The Monroe pieces did not sell over well and the remainder were put into circulation in California. What has happened to the Huguenot Walloon pieces I do not know but I am inclined to believe that the same thing happened there because dealers are now selling these for 78¢. The Lexington half dollars are selling for 83¢ but it is too early to tell yet what the Stone Mountain half dollars will sell for.

The dealer with the largest stock of commemorative coins is Gutttag Brothers, 18 Exchange Place, New York City.

We do not have any coins for sale.

Very truly yours

HW C
